

Terminology/ Grammar: YEAR 8 HT 4

Revision from HT3

1. Adjectives must agree with the noun that they are describing.
2. Their endings change to agree with the noun. (masculine / feminine and singular / plural)
3. The adjective mostly comes after the noun it is describing e.g "un table vert" - "a green table".
4. If the adjective is feminine, you need to add an "e" in most cases.
5. Exceptions to this are adjectives which end in "-eux", change to "-euse", adjectives which end in "-el", change to "-elle"
6. Adjectives which end in "-e" anyway (e.g drôle) do not get an extra "e".
7. Adjectives in the plural form add an "s" in most cases.
8. One total common exception to this rule is "beau" and "belle", which are different words for "handsome" and "pretty".
9. Reflexive verbs have an extra word called a reflexive pronoun. Eg
Je me douche = I have a shower (I shower myself)
10. Reflexive verbs are often actions you do to yourself.

HT4

11. Possessive adjectives are the words for my/your/his/her/our.
12. We change possessive adjectives to match the noun they are describing.
eg. Ma soeur mon frère mes parents
13. The near future tense uses the verb aller (to go) plus an infinitive:-

je vais = I am going tu vas = you are going il va = he is going elle va = she is going on va = we are going nous allons = we are going vous allez = you are going ils vont = they are going elles vont = they are going

Faire = to do/make

Cognates and near cognates are words that are spelled exactly the same or nearly the same as English words and have the same meaning in French. But be careful - there are some French words that look like cognates but which mean something completely different.

What does these words mean?

porter =
veste =
